What you need to do -- continuedIf you don't agree with the changes

- Call 800-8290-0922 to review your account. You can also contact us by mail. Fill out the Contact information section, detach, and send it to us with any correspondence or documentation.
- If you contact us in writing within 60 days of the date of this notice, we'll reverse the change we made to your account. You don't need to provide an explanation or additional documents when you request the reversal, but we'll consider any information you provide us. However, if you don't provide us additional information that justifies the reversal and we believe the reversal is in error, we may forward your case for audit. After we forward your case, the audit staff will contact you with 5 to 6 weeks to fully explain the audit process and your rights, and you may need to provide an explanation or additional documents. After the audit, you'll have formal appeal rights, including the right to appeal our decision to the United States Tax Court.
- If you don't contact us within 60 days, the change will not be reversed. However, you may file a claim for refund to dispute the change. Generally, you must submit the claim within 3 years of the date you filed the tax return, or within 2 years of the date of your last payment for this tax, whichever is later.

We'll assume you agree with the information in this notice if we don't hear from you.

Changes to your 2018 tax return

Information was changed because of the following:

- The individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN) for you or your spouse has expired. As a result, we disallowed certain credits claimed on your return. This change may affect any of the following credits:
 - Education credits
 - Credit for other dependents
 - Child tax credit
 - Additional child tax credit (709D)
