Someone may represent you

You may have someone represent you during any part of this examination. If you decide you want representation, the representative you authorize will need a completed Form(s) 2848, Power of Attorney and Declaration of Representative, before we can discuss any of your tax matters.

If you choose to have someone represent you, please provide a completed Form 2848 by our first appointment. You can mail or fax the form to me or have your representative provide it at the first appointment, if you won’t be present. You can obtain Form 2848 from our office, from our web site, www.irs.gov or by calling (800) 829-3676.

If you filed a joint return, you and your spouse may attend the examination. If you and/or your spouse choose not to attend with your representative, you must provide completed Form(s) 2848. You should provide a separate Form 2848 for each spouse if you filed jointly even if you use the same representative.

Your rights as a taxpayer

We have enclosed Publication 1, Your Rights as a Taxpayer and Notice 609, Privacy Act Notice. The Declaration of Taxpayer Rights found in Publication 1 discusses general rules and procedures we follow in examinations. It explains what happens before, during, and after an examination, and provides additional sources of information.

A video presentation, “Your Guide to an IRS Audit,” is available at http://www.irsvideos.gov/audit. The video explains the examination process and will assist you in preparing for your audit.

Thank you for your cooperation and I look forward to hearing from you on or before the response date provided above.

Sincerely yours,
