Tax Account Period: 2013

Dear Taxpayer:

Your income tax return for the above Tax Account Period has been processed and our records indicate that your estimated taxes for the year were underpaid. Under section 235-97(f), Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS), you are being assessed $134.08 penalty for underpaying your estimated taxes. Our calculation assumes that your tax liability was accrued and paid uniformly over that year.

If the penalty amount calculated is not correct due to one of the reasons listed below, please complete a Form N-210 or N-220, whichever applies, and mail it with a copy of this letter to the appropriate district tax office.. You may obtain these forms by visiting our web site at <http://www.hawaii.gov/tax>, by calling 808-587-4242 or 1-800-222-3229 (Toll Free), writing, or visiting one of our district offices. The reasons to file a Form N-210 or N-220 are:

1. Your tax liability did not accrue uniformly during the year and or your tax payments were not uniformly made; or
2. You elect the annualized method or any other allowable method to compute the amount imposed under section 235-97(f), HRS; or
3. Other, including for individuals, a change in filing status,

A billing notice will be sent to you for any amount due. Please note that if your income tax return showed a refund, the refund will be reduced by the penalty amount.

Any questions or correspondence should be directed to the Oahu District Office.

Sincerely,

Department of Taxation
